

KURRENT KOMMENT

GATHERED TOGETHER FOR FUTURE CAREFUL CONSIDERATION.

Opinions as to the Results of the Recent Tidal Wave and Cyclonic Disturbances— "What Will the Harvest Be?"

Ohio gets closer and closer.

If there ever was a time when Republicans should stand together, that time is now.

Gradually and cautiously the Democratic blunders let go of Labor Commissioner Peck.

In some quarters there is a doubt as to whether it was Grover Cleveland of New York or Clark Howell of Georgia who was elected the other day.

If the McKinley law depresses industry and injures business, as the Democracy has been declaring all along, it ought to be repealed as quickly as possible.

Henry Cabot Lodge is looming up as a strong candidate for the U. S. Senatorship from Massachusetts to succeed Mr. Dawes. Mr. Lodge is a well equipped statesman.

Governor Flower declares positively that he will not be a member of the new Cabinet. This view seems to coincide exactly with Mr. Cleveland's opinion on the same question.

Illinois having gone Democratic, Chicago is a strong bidder for the grand central headquarters of the party, making the Tammany establishment in New York a mere branch office.

The present talk about electing Carl Schurz to the United States Senate is merely a "joke." It doubtless tickles Mr. Schurz and doesn't scare the man who is going to get the place.

The Kansas Prohibitionists helped to elect a Democratic Governor, and are to be rewarded by the establishing of an administration that will do its level best to render the prohibitory law a nullity and dead letter.

Nothing has been heard from Bidwell, the Prohibition candidate for President, since the flood set in on the night of election day. As soon as Bidwell gets ashore he should send in word telling what he thinks of the shower.

The Tariff smashers should call in genial old Horizontal Morrison before they tackle the McKinley law. The gentleman may not help them to any positive advice, but he is chock full of information on how not to do it.

For Secretary of War, Henry Watterson of Kentucky. Platform: Protection has got to march through a slaughterhouse to an open grave. This route was picked out for another procession, but the parade has been postponed.

So the Hon. Don Dickson wants a seat on the bench of the United States Supreme Court? Now let him render a judicial opinion on his chances of getting there, and then the country will be better able to judge of his fitness for the place.

When Mr. Cleveland comes to make up his Cabinet he will hardly be permitted to forget that the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware is very much out of a job. A Bayard in a fix of that sort is an anxious and highly distressed kind of person.

The Commercial Gazette doesn't often hit a harder blow right on the head of the nail than this: "A sweeping reduction of the Tariff would, of course, result in the cheapening of some articles of consumption. But wages would also be cheapened. Experience proves that in a falling market wages are the first to fall, and in a rising market the last to rise. Therefore, what does it profit a poor man if our country get the cheap productions of the whole world, provided wages are cheap and employment hard to get at any price?"

PUBLIC

LEDGER

FIRST YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1892.

ONE CENT.

PERSONAL POINTS.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

R. L. Roeflich was in Cincinnati yesterday.

J. T. Suit of Sardis called on THE LEDGER yesterday.

Mrs. L. V. Davis and Mrs. John Duley were in Cincinnati yesterday.

Miss Mattie Lee Mennen of Covington is the guest of Miss Jennie Wood.

Mrs. A. F. Respass of Frankfort is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Watson.

Mrs. Dr. S. Pangburn left this morning for Chicago to spend Thanksgiving with her parents who reside there.

Miss Beatrice Pollitt, who has been visiting her brother at Bloomington, Ill., and friends at New Castle, Ind., returned home Wednesday night, accompanied by Master Burt Pollitt.

TWO KINDS OF MEN.

Men like a man who comes to you
When'er he has a thing to say
About you, whether false or true,
And says it in a manly way.
But everybody hates the sneak
Who gossips lies with chuckling glee
And says, "For God's sake, if you speak
Of this, don't say it came from me."

THANKSGIVING Day next Thursday.

Do your holiday advertising in THE LEDGER.

LEXINGTON Democrats celebrated in great style Wednesday night.

THE biggest ratification of all will occur at Cincinnati to-morrow night.

THE Richmond Street Railroad has been placed in the hands of a receiver.

MADISON county will hereafter have thirteen votes in Democratic conventions.

OSCAR HANNA, a well known citizen of Dover, will soon remove with his family to Dayton.

JUDICIAL advertising in the columns of THE LEDGER will make your holiday trade boom.

TAYLOR RAINY and Miss Tyre West eloped from Lancaster and were married at Cincinnati.

It takes about $350,000 per month to pay the salaries of the Kentucky common schoolteachers.

"A TURKISH BATH" will be seen at Washington Opera-house on Saturday evening, November 26th.

THIRTY-FIVE is said to be the number of Ashland Democrats who would like to be Postmaster at that place.

A LAND company with $500,000 has been organized at Newport to develop a tract of 850 acres near Fort Thomas.

THE Carlisle Creamery Company has been organized and a committee appointed to look for a suitable location.

MISS JENNIE WOOD will entertain this evening with a progressive euchre party in honor of Miss Mattie Lee Mennen of Covington.

FRESH COAL at Wormald's Elevators. Orders left at office, corner Third and Wall street, or at the Elevators on Limestone street, will receive prompt attention. Terms cash.

THERE are already nine applicants for the Postmastership of Dover, with more to follow. The office pays less than $500 a year, but a great many people seem to consider it a bonanza, says The News.

ON September 20th last, Mrs. Anna Chippendale started from Covington to go to Norfolk, Va., and has never been heard of since. Her friends are much alarmed and the police are investigating.

ELMER PATTON of Sardis whose arm was broken in the railroad wreck at Greeley, Kansas, in which Robert Tarleton lost his life, is improving rapidly and is expected home within the next few days. T. P. Bratton is still with him at Greeley.

ACCORDING to the rotary system by which the churches in this city have been working for many years, the Thanksgiving service this year will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the sermon will be preached by the Rev. John S. Hays, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. The people of this city are cordially invited to attend.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Bits of News That Will Interest "Ledger" Readers.

Carlisle Mercury.—The New Richmond creamery, costing originally $5,000, after a short run was appraised at $1,500, and still they are being built every day.

Ashland News.—A carload of dressed turkeys are shipped from this point over the C. and O. to the Eastern markets now daily. They are shipped by express in baggage cars, and go on first-class trains.

Huntington Herald.—The ladies of the hospital board are quietly but effectually working toward the accomplishment of their cherished purpose. The active and sincere support of the entire community should be with them in this noble enterprise. Let us lay aside all controversies and work a while heartily, shoulder to shoulder for the good of humanity.

Huntington Herald.—C. W. DeFosse, the butcher, has sued the city for $100 damages. His delivery horse stumbled in a hole in the street that had been left by some contractors who had been moving a house. The hole had been filled but not properly vamped, and the late rains settled the loose dirt to such an extent that it rendered the place dangerous. The suit will occur before Squire Taylor on the 22d inst.

Ironton Republican.—The new stove foundry project of the Messrs. Witman is progressing most favorably, and it is now practically settled that it will be a go. Nearly all of the required stock has been subscribed, and land has been donated by the Lombard syndicate for a site for the buildings just North of the Academy of our Lady of Lourdes, along the line of the N. and W. Railroad, and work on the buildings will commence shortly. The company operating it will be known as the Ironton Stove and Range Company, and it will be formally organized in a week or two.

Get the Best!

Yesterday's "Ledger" was a good paper, and it will continue to be a good paper throughout the year. It will give you all the news every day at the low price of 25 cents a month, either by carrier or by mail. Now is the time to subscribe.

It is less than six weeks 'till Christmas.

THE Frankfort street car line is now in operation.

COLONEL W. W. GAULT has returned to his rural home.

CANDIDATES for city offices are beginning to get a move on themselves.

It is now said that Colonel Jack Chinn will recover from his wound but will have a mighty close call.

CONGRESSMAN PAYNTER's mail has increased wonderfully since the election, says The Greenup Gazette.

WILLIAM DAVIS has received a supply of fresh coal. Office on Sutton street near Second. Terms cash.

MURAT HALSTEAD says that Billy Breckinridge stands first in the President-elect's heart of Kentuckians.

IMMENSE droves of turkeys are arriving in town daily. Most of them will grace Thanksgiving boards in the far East.

THE annual reception and banquet of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., will be held at the Asylum on the evening of December 7th.

JAMES FLYNN, a Newport policeman, was fired from the force for shoving his gun under a saloon-keepers nose who had refused him a drink.

BRADLEY, the dime-novel man, has been elected to Congress in New York, while Hoyt, the playwright, has been chosen a legislator by his neighbors in New Hampshire.

ANOTHER moral wave seems to have struck Lexington. The Grand Jury now in session has returned one hundred indictments against keepers of bawdy-houses and tipping places.

AN incident of some note is the fact of the election of Harris for Congressman-at-large in the state of Kansas. He is an ex-Confederate soldier and is the first ex-Confederate ever elected to Congress in a Northern state.

The Deputy Sheriffs.

J. C. Jefferson, Sheriff-elect of Mason county, has selected the two gentlemen who will serve under him as deputies.

They are Samuel Perrine, at present deputy under Sheriff Alexander, and James R. Robinson of near Mayslick. The new Sheriff will take hold January 1st. THE LEDGER wishes his administration success.

Arm Hurt.

William Wise, an employe in the freight yards, had his left arm frightfully mangled while coupling cars about noon yesterday.

His arm was caught between the bumpers between the wrist and elbow and it seems as though some projectile had been shoved clear through.

While it is a severe injury his physician, Dr. Owens, does not anticipate serious trouble.

Coming.

Lovers of refined minstrelsy have a rare treat in store. Gorton's justly famous New Orleans Minstrels will appear at Washington Opera-house on next Tuesday evening, November 22d.

It is a show full of good things and all of the performers are artists in the front rank of minstrelsy.

One of the pleasing novelties in connection with the entertainment will be uniformed street parade at noon on the day of their arrival, preceded by a grand open air concert.

Prices, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Forgery at Portsmouth.

The First National Bank of Portsmouth is in possession of six checks which represent one of the slickest cases of forgery that has been accomplished in that city for a long time. It was done in a way to throw the most sagacious bankers off their guard. The checks are drawn for amounts aggregating $61, and three of them were made payable to the order of William Brewster, the other three to the order of Thomas Davies.

The man whose name is forged to the business ends of the checks is Manager William Meeker of the Portsmouth Wheel Works, and the forger in some way, which made the checks much more deceptive, had gotten hold of the company's rubber stamp which is used on all checks, and his forgery of the name of Mr. Meeker was exceptionally good. Five of the checks were passed off on shoe men, and the other on a hardware man; but as the checks were all accepted by the bank before the forgery was discovered, the bank will be the loser.

THE next annual Encampment of the G. A. R. at Indianapolis will begin on September 4th, 1893.

JUDGE PRAY of the Court of Appeals has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to return to the bench.

MRS. R. HEDGES of Paris is dangerously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adair, in the Sixth Ward.

SENATOR JAMES H. MULLIGAN is said to be an applicant for the office of Collector of Revenue in the Lexington District.

THE Whisky Trust is reported to have purchased five more distilleries, located at Cincinnati, St. Louis, Nebraska City and Pekin, Ill.

DR. JOHN BOWEN of Paris was in the city yesterday on professional business. He is one of the most distinguished surgeons in Central Kentucky.

NEAR High Bridge, James Christman shot and killed George Woods, the reason alleged being that the latter laughed at him two years ago for not knowing how to put a reaping machine in order.

SENATOR CARLISLE thinks the financial affairs of the country may prove to be in such shape as to render an extra session of Congress imperative. The Tariff alone, in his opinion, will not furnish sufficient reason.

THE Frank Owens Hardware Company have determined to sell every gun they have in stock. They have made a big reduction in prices, and now is the time to buy a gun. They mean business; rather have money than guns carried over to next season. Go and see them. You will go out with a gun.

THE crowd of colored people, most of whom were females, who attempted to molest Watson Andrews, an aged man of their race, who took part in the Democratic jollification parade last Tuesday, was severely reprimanded by Mayor Pearce yesterday, and each was bound over in the sum of $100 to keep the peace.

COLONEL W. O. BRADLEY, the great Republican leader of Kentucky, was at Williamsburg Saturday, says The Times. He fled to the mountains, presumably to escape the recent avalanche, but when he saw the preparation for the great Democratic parade Saturday night, he went home convinced that the whole world was Democratic.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Henry Farwick Receives a Ball in the Arm While Fooling With a Revolver.

Henry Farwick, engineer at the sawmill of the Collins & Rudy Lumber Company, accidentally shot himself in the left arm about 9 o'clock last night in the office of the company.

He was fooling with a revolver when it was discharged, the ball entering the palm of his left hand, ploughing through his arm and coming out near the elbow. The velocity of the missile was not yet checked for it entered his thigh making two distinct wounds.

Dr. Yazell was called to attend the injuries and found the victim painfully though not seriously hurt.

After his wounds were dressed he was removed to his home.

Mrs. R. C. Rheas.

Of Milford, Neb., says she suffered greatly from a complication of diseases of female weakness and liver and kidney troubles. Her health was fully restored by using Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the most pleasant and most effective medicine known. 25 and 50 cent package at Power & Reynolds's Drugstore.

A Reliable Man.

M. J. Griner, a Justice of the Peace at Print, Mich., says one bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life. He had been down with bloody flux for three weeks when he commenced using this medicine. It soon cured him, and he believes saved his life. He also says it saved the lives of three railroad men in that vicinity. "Squire Griner is a reliable and conscientious man, and whatever he says can be depended upon. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

All Americans.

In the course of his remarks at the New York Chamber of Commerce banquet Mr. Reid, after several graceful allusions to Mr. Cleveland who was present, showed a very proper spirit and altogether American by his conclusion: "I think I may speak for my associates as well as myself, in saying to the gentlemen who are soon to take control of the Government, that whatever they may do to sustain the honor of the flag and promote the prosperity of the country, they will find in the United States no Republicans and no Democrats, but we are all Americans."

Our Duty.

An exchange says that it is an editor's duty to speak of his town as the loveliest place beneath the blue arch of Heaven. Speak of a deceased citizen as a "fallen oak" when he dies of jimjams. Call a man a prominent and influential citizen when you know he is the best poker player in town. Speak of a little street Arab as a bright-eyed youth on the road to fame, a big-footed, newly married woman as the beautiful and accomplished bride. Call the man who has a few dusty bolts of calico and a soldier's blue coat, a prosperous and experienced dry goods merchant, call a lawyer a leading light of whom the profession should be proud when you know him to be an ordinary pettifogger.

The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms of a cold is a dry, loud coughing and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectually counteract it and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced. Fifty cent bottle for sale by Power & Reynolds.

Badly Treated.

A special to The Commercial Gazette from Lexington says: "When Senator Joe C. S. Blackburn, who was an anti-Cleveland man before his nomination, attempted to speak at Woodland Park, the Democrats drowned his voice with yells and tin horns. It might have been their enthusiasm, but many believed the bad treatment accorded the Senator was due to the fact that he was not a Cleveland man. When Charles J. Bronston, who had always been warm for Cleveland, made a few remarks after the Senator stepped aside disgusted, he was listened to attentively and applauded to the echo."

It is too bad that the popular Senator is at odds with the administration. No one would be happier than he with Federal patronage in his hands for distribution among his friends, but it seems that the breach between him and the President-elect, which occurred during the early part of the latter's first term, has never been closed.

HIS OWN BOSS.

That is What the President-Elect Proposes to Be.

Mr. Cleveland Will Make No Promises to the Tammanyites.

Disappointments, Not Appointments, For Them—No Friends to Reward and No Opponents to Punish—Will Pledge Himself to No One.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Brooklyn Eagle strongly denies the published statements that at a dinner at the Victoria hotel Cleveland met the Tammany leaders and made promises and stipulations to them in return for their support at his election.

"The truth as to what the practitioners on Mr. Cleveland's courage and freedom learned is this: They learned that Mr. Cleveland would make no promises, or anything of the sort, to any of them, or to, or for, any others through them; that he had not sought the nomination, which on the contrary had sought him; that he could read the success of the ticket in this state as a matter of much more importance to them than to him; he repelled the idea that his democracy was questionable by them or doubtful by anyone; that they knew he was aware who had been his friends before nomination, and he would know who had and who had not been his friends after election; that he would have no friends to reward on account of friendship, and no former opponents to punish on account of former opposition; that he would go to election or defeat equally free, and absolutely uncommitted, but that if the democratic people and ticket were beaten in this state by the democratic machine, another democratic organization was ready to take its place at once, and that in such case the youngest man present would not live long enough to see that machine sufficiently strong to win or to betray a cause thereafter, or one of their number ever sitting in a state or national convention again.

Wednesday night at a dinner given by the Manhattan Single Tax club, Mr. Thos. G. Shearman, of Brooklyn, said that at the now historical dinner there were present Messrs. Cleveland, Whitney, Dickinson, Sheehan, Edward Murphy, Jr., and Richard Croker.

"Mr. Cleveland has not told me anything about the pledges he made," said Mr. Shearman, "but there happens to be a telephone in the room where that dinner was held, which conveyed to me what happened."

Mr. Shearman then pictured Lieut. Gov. Sheehan as standing up and addressing Mr. Cleveland on the subject of pledges.

Mr. Cleveland replied to Mr. Sheehan: "Mr. Sheehan, I have listened with the utmost attention to what you have said. I have followed you very carefully and I think I understand you perfectly, and what I have to say in reply, Mr. Sheehan, is that I'll be—before I'll pledge myself to any man on any subject whatever, and I'll be doubly—before I give to you those particular pledges for which you have asked at this particular time."

COAL HAULER'S MISHAP.

Falls Into a Thirty Foot Well and Escapes Unharmed.

SALEM, O., Nov. 18.—Charles Whitcomb, a coal hauler, delivering coal at the residence of Mrs. Tampus, undertook to remove an obstruction, which proved to be a cover to an old well. It was getting dark, and in lifting the cover he walked into the well and touched bottom thirty feet below, with water up to his shoulders. The well cover fell to its place, and completely shut him up in total darkness. He was not seriously hurt, and began to climb by bracing and clinging to the rough wall. When about twenty feet up, the cover was removed, his cries having been heard by a girl chancing to pass, who gave the alarm, and he was assisted out with a rope.

Tennessee's Vote.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 18.—Official returns from 84 of the 97 counties of this state received by the secretary of state give Cleveland 128,698, Harrison 84,740, Weaver 28,423, Bidwell 4,893. The remaining counties will not appreciably change the plurality of Cleveland over Harrison. These returns, with an additional county not officially reported, give for Gov. Turney, dem., 128,399; Winsted, rep., 91,167; Buchanan, ind. and populist, 31,350; East, probib., 5,295. The remaining counties will vary but little from these ratios.

Christian Workers Go South.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Christian Workers' convention, which has been in session here for several days, closed with a consecration service. The next convention will be held at Atlanta, Ga. A resolution was adopted against opening the World's fair on Sundays.

French Imports and Exports Decreased. PARIS, Nov. 18.—The returns issued by the French board of trade show that during the month of October the imports decreased 15,360,000 francs and the exports decreased 96,948,000 francs, as compared with those of the corresponding month last year.

Chinamen Sent Back.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Lee Fen and Lee Sin Fan, indicted under the Chinese exclusion act, have been tried in the United States court. Congressman Crowley appeared for the Celestials who were found guilty.

Plate Glass Manufacturers Meet.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 18.—The plate glass manufacturers met again here and decided to restrict production. The delegates stated that no combination had been formed and that no change would be made in rates.

Balfour Holds His Seat.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 18.—Prof. Munroe's petition against the election of Right Hon. A. J. Balfour as M. P. for East Manchester on the alleged grounds of bribery, etc., has been practically abandoned.
